

THE 1967 TORCH

.... BUT THESE DAYS
SHALL NOT BE FORGOTTEN

EAST BRIDGEWATER HIGH SCHOOL
EAST BRIDGEWATER, MASSACHUSETTS

FORWARD

Hidden in a masque of ignorance and inadequacy, serving as our own worst enemy we came. We knew not and we cared not. Around us was a world speeding by, leaving us helplessly behind.

Despite ourselves, we were able to reach out and grasp o part of that world — a world which we were to know, to respect, to love — that warld of EBHS. . . EBHS which for so long has been our present, but which is quickly becoming an element of the past.

What can we say about that world? What can we say of the people we have met, the friends we have made, the things we have learned, and the things we should have learned? We can not measure our emotion for that life which we have always known, and are about to lose, nor shall we try, but regardless of all that lies ahead, these days shall not be forgotten.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

At the end of four years we know. . .

We are young, aware, often only of ourselves, but always...

Why is it we never remember...

These were days full of friends...

For years we were proudly Warriars...

Face them with a smile and loads of determination. . .

DEDICATION

Pictured here is an individual who, to us, has become the "Spirit of '67". A person whose warmth, understanding, devotion and most-cherished wit have helped to fuse us into a unified and enthusiastic class. If we have attained any degree of success, it is lorgely due to the efforts of this same individual who has made "Sixty-seven-best ever" her personal motto.

During the past four years, we have come to respect her as a teacher, admire her as an advisor, and love her as a friend. Because we ultimately turn to what is familiar and beloved, we, the Class of 1967, dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Eileen Malloy, E.B.M., Mumsie, the "Spirit of '67"!

Though you may not witness a lineup of ninety some-odd rigid, soldier-like seniors, we truly salute Mr. Raymond Homilton in our minds and hearts. We salute this man who, though he may "stay close behind Mr. Urban in a football game", will stand confidently at the front lines as our commander of success.

Golden broids, wings, and stripes of rank are not part of his uniform. Now we wish to decorate him with four intangible medals—admiration, respect, friendship and thanks.

SALUTATION
Raymond A. Hamilton

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To the Class of 1967:

Throughout your life you will find learning the reflection of living. From every experience of living comes learning. A delegate to the United Nations once wrote, "When you stop learning, you stop living in any vital and meaningful sense. And the purpose of life, after all, is to live it, to taste experience to the utmost, to reach out eagerly and without fear for newer and richer experience."

Now you are shaping your life. This process will not end. The choices you make are your responsibility. Thus I ask you to learn every moment of your life. You will discover as your mind and being grow you will in reality be learning to live.

As commencement approaches may I say I am proud of you. I wish you life's best. It will be yours if you now commence an adulthood of learning and living.

Raymond A. Hamilton Principal To the Class of 1967:

Your high school graduation is a day charged with excitement, anticipation, and happiness.

You've made it. And I congratulate each of you for the effort that brought you through your high school course.

If any single event marks your entronce into the adult world it is your groduation from high school. Until now you have been guided, counseled, advised and perhaps been controlled a little more than you thought necessary. But whatever path you take from now on, you will be a great deal more on your own than you have ever been in your life. You will face a great many more decisions clone, and you will be responsible for the results of these decisions.

In my closing thought to the Class of 1967 may I say that the truly successful men and women of the world first mastered themselves before they tried to master business, government, the law, or whatever their personal dreams lead them to. They learned what is probably the most profound truth men have discovered in the history of organized society. . .that the truly successful man or woman must be able to get along with other people.

This art is the keystone to all success.

ROBERT ALEXANDER

Of tomorrow I'm not sure, but I'll have today forever.

"The longest life is but a porcel of moments."

ERIC ALM

He speaks and the world laughs in acknowledgement.

You don't need a purpose to be happy, if happiness is your purpose.

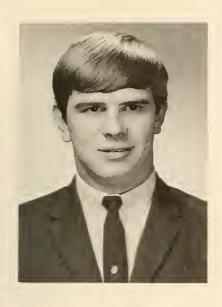

GAYLE ANDRESEN

All that she does, she does with a smile.

She specializes in sincerity.

CARL BARRIS
. . . and this is Erik!

Knowledge has brought her wisdom; faith has brought her friends.

DEBORAH BELMORE

She is the guage by which we measure friendship.

I am but a crusader searching for a cause.

MAUREEN CAREY

How warm her smile, how soft her voice.

Thank goodness for o merry man.

KAREN CHUILLI

How well we know the powers of her charm.

As colorful as a spectrum of autumn leaves.

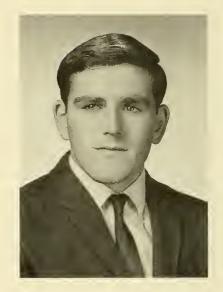

KATHLEEN CLISH

She leaves a glow of friendship in all her paths.

Laughter is the bond of friendship.

HELEN CONEFREY

Energy is the force behind her occomplishments.

ALAN CUNNINGHAM

To be carefree doesn't mean not to care.

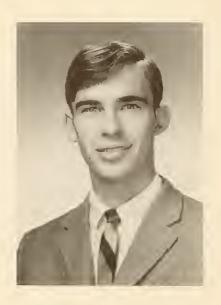

FRED DARLING

He has so much to tell the world, and so many ways to tell it.

What a stoneless road he travels; all downhill on a breezy day.

ROBERT DEMERS

Who said they don't grow them like they used to?

Never minus an opinion with a plus way to put it.

JANICE DUNLEVY

No one ever wore a crooked halo with such angelic assurance.

"Life lies not in living, but in liking."

JOHN FARRELL

Never a truer friend or more dedicated crusader has knighthood overlooked.

With a spirit as lively and refreshing as a new found spring.

KATHERINE FIGGINS

She who can raugh without reason gives those who frown a reason to rejoice.

What greater compliment to pay a man than to hold precious his friendship and respect.

LINDA FOLEY

She makes life look so easy.

She basks in the warmth of many friends.

JEAN GILSON

"Being good natured inspires friends."

Happy is the heart that can sing.

JOHN GUARINO

"Studious to please, but not ashamed to fail."

They say great minds never get bored.

JEFFREY HANSON

. . . and the light of all oges shines in his eyes.

JOHN HANSON

First to volunteer, last to let us down.

RAYMOND HOWARTH

He has a refreshing zest for living.

In all her ways, a gentle waman.

CHERYL JACKSON

In her, beauty and understanding stroll hand in hand.

The kind man never wastes words on anger.

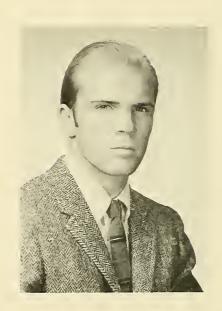

JUDY LaROSA

A cheerful heart is her most precious possession.

". . . as free as the wind blows."

SUSAN LEVANGIE

The most important letter in understanding is "you".

"Worth makes the man."

LURANA MacNEVIN

The promise of a quiet girl will not be betrayed by words.

She is the bloom of April's showers.

MICHAEL MASON

Some say it's his good looks that make him charming—or is it the other way around?

Spirit and enthusiasm are her private possessions.

EARLE McCLARE

With friends and fellowship I meet the future.

MARY McGRAIL

"The sincere alone can recognize sincerity."

DONALD MEYEROWITZ

With a quick but quiet wit he'll conquer all.

GREGORY MILLIGAN

He walks a foot above the ground and his heart soars even higher.

PHILIP MOLA

That slaw, cautious smile.

And the world shall come to love her as she has come to love the world.

DENNIS MUNISE

"The natural alone is permanent."

Never let my words conform to someone else's thinking.

DONNA NUTT

"Softly speak and sweetly smile."

Wisdom is often the reason for silence.

WENDY PEASE

In life she finds contentment.

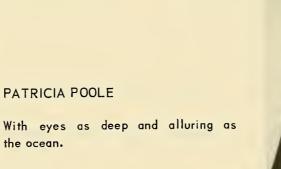

A pyramid of personality with a vertex of humor.

MARY ANN PHILBRICK Like the sun she radiates warmth.

SYDNEY QUERIPEL Rich in manly virtues.

PATRICIA POOLE

the ocean.

RICHARD REED

I walk towards tomorrow with assurance.

BRUCE RICHARDS Master of the unexpected.

CHRISTOPHER ROAN

Be confident, young man, we have faith in you.

DONA RUGG

The milk of human kindness never came in a nicer container.

In horsemanship and friendship she reigns supreme.

ROBERT SAMPSON

He is youth and in this he rejaices.

It is the true individual who shapes the world.

PATRICIA SHEPARD

She has a heart of understanding and a soul of giving.

CAROL SMITH

Happiness is found in her quiet manner.

LAURIE SNOW

He will try anything and anything he tries will likely succeed.

Talent and beauty only add to her worth.

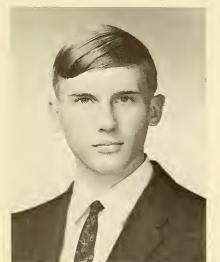

NANCY SPROUL

In truth, she was friendly and in her friendship, true.

I dare you to disagree—I've heard your views, now listen to me.

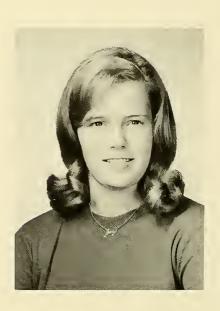

ROBERT TOWER

Wonder is the essence of knowledge.

"The heart is wiser than the intellect."

FRANCES TUROWSKI

An artist is the window through which we see the sun.

In confidence there is strength.

DEBORAH WALSH

"She's a marvelous character, isn't she?"

"It is not enough to do good; one must do it the right way."

WARREN WHITE

"Everything comes if o man will only wait."

We like to think the reason she smiles is because she's pleased with life.

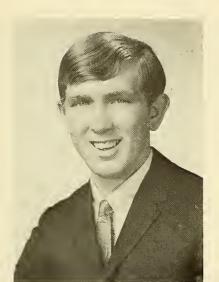

THOMAS WHITMAN

"Tomorrow is coming, why hurry?"

With a smile to face tomorrow.

DANIEL WILE

"Truth is the highest thing that man may keep."

An aura of loveliness.

DONALD WILLIAMS

An endless spirit with equal wit.

DONNA WILSON

We delight in her friendship, in her kindness rejoice.

PATRICIA WILSON

In her face is reflected the joy that is in her heart.

If the world were hers to own, she'd give it all away.

WENDY YOUNG

Some of the softest words can be heard for miles.

Yes, we believe in miracles, she is one.

"He who does not succeed,

falls behind."

CLASS PLAY

"Everybody Loves Opal" — and can you really blame them? There was charm and humor enough to put laugh lines into the sternest faces. Fallen down praps didn't phase the cast of this off—Broadway hit. The Class of 1967 certainly presented a play that proves quality isn't always a product of quantity.

JUNIOR PROM

"You're sure to fall in love with old Cape $\operatorname{\mathsf{Cod}} \ldots$ "

And we did, on our short visit to this dream world of our own creation. The many months of planning, decorating, and headaches were forgotten, as we found a new time to live and enjoy. Hurried hellos and compliments, the grand march, and it was all over for then, but to us the Junior Prom will always be there to relive and remember.

1967 TORCH STAFF

The staff of the 1967 TORCH had many problems and moments of despair this year. But we had one other thing that made all the headache and heartache a little easier to bear. We had Mr. Albert Kjellerstedt. With appreciation but much regret we leave him at E.B.H.S. to become part of the TORCH to come — the Heart.

TYPING STAFF — Pat Eklund, Susan Levangie, Naomi Goldman, Jeon Hubbard, Donna Wilson, Pat Shepard.

We suppose we could say "We're the Greatest"! Instead, we, the year-book staff, shall say we're the most thankful. We thank you, the students of EBHS for all the support you have given us. We would especially like to thank the senior class. Only through their diligent efforts were we able to realize our goal.

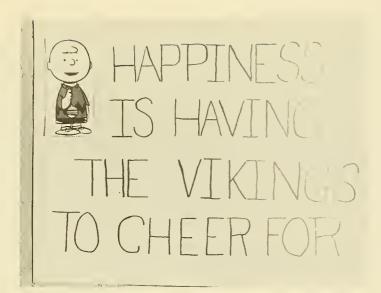

PUBLICATION STAFF - Frances Turowski, Lu Zentz, Paula Bates, Janice Dunlevy, Dona Rugg. Standing -Ann duCille, Robert Sampson.

BUSINESS STAFF — Front row - Karen Chuilli, Don Williams, Chris Roan, Albert Fiarini, John Guarino. Back row - Kathy Clish, Cynthia Maille, Elaine Armer, Pat Morey, Robert Demers, Wade Hamilton, John Hanson, Robert Tower.

ACTIVITIES

... and things to do

Front row - R. Demers, B. Zaval, E. Guarino, K. Jones, L. Chuilli, S. Ridder, S. Singleton, J. Brown, C. Perrault, M. DiPietro. Back row - Mr.

Edward Meaney-Advisor, E. McClare, D. Holmon, D. Rugg, P. Bates, J. Hanson, P. Furia, J. McClare, N. Perkins, N. Morton.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Perhaps the Council deserves more respect from the students at EBHS than it receives, for no other group does so much to help the student. This elected body not only strives to better student-teacher relations but to represent the student in all phases of school life. Though too few of us realize it, the Student Council is succeeding.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Scholarship, leadership, service - these are the qualifications of a National Honor Society member. They are the basis of the club itself. In former years, the N.H.S. was a little-known club, used only as a good reference on school records. Changes have been taking place. This year's National Honor Society has truly become an active club, proud of its motto, and willing to live up to it.

Front row: J. Persson, P. Sullivan, R. Poskus, N. Howland, E. Curley, R. Hartman, J. Brown, B. Zaval; Middle row: N. Perkins, D. Walsh, K. Orcutt, V. Dondero, M. Horsley, M. Guarino, P.

Eklund, S. Roan, C. Crocker; Back row: L. Weare, N. Goldman, L. Lundgren, N. Perkins, V. Long, R. Brown, A. duCille, C. Fairburn, D. Holman.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

Latin - a dead language? Perhaps, but through the J.C.L., it suddenly comes alive, showering upon its members a better understanding of the civilizations of ancient Greece and Rome. Under the guidance of Miss Mary Sullivan, Latin students are given an out-of-the-classroom introduction to the art, literature, and laws of old, to which our modern society is indebted.

FRENCH CHORAL AND ART

The goings-on of this group are expressed in it's name—French Choral and Art. The lingo spoken is French, the art examined—French, and the songs sung (sometimes off-key) are once again, French. And the atmosphere is friendly, as we all know the French can be.

Front row-J. Hawarth, L. Hall, K. Orcutt, D. Belmore, S. Roan, C. Crocker, D. Walsh, P. Sullivan, L. Kashgagian. Second row-J. Hogue, M. Guarino. R. Hardman, M. Horsley, L. Weare, L.

Santilli, V. Dondero, J. Persson, P. Eklund. Back row-J. Brown, E. Curley, D. Holman, L. Anderson, L. Lundgren, R. Alexander, M. Belanger, A. duCille, N. Sproul, N. Goldman, N. Howland.

In the Future Nurses Club a dual purpose is filled. The club gives girls who have an interest in a medical career a chance to see what may lie in store for them. For girls who have no idea of their future plans, it provides infarmation about one of the most rewarding careers possible.

Through field trips, speakers, and service projects, nursing becomes more an attainable goal. The club awards a scholarship each year and through the efforts of the members and Mrs. Hartman, the advisor, money is raised for this worthwhile project. The Nurses Club is surely an important and appreciated part of school activities.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

Zentz, N. Sproul, D. Rugg, K. Chuilli. Fourth row—S. Petronelli, C. Milligon, C. Nickerson, J. Morey, K. McCarthy, J. Thomas, C. Crocker, L. Lundgren. Back row—J. McClare, N. Faley, K. Cloudman, L. Hewins, T. McCabe, D. Brock, K. Carey.

LIBRARY 4SSISTANTS

Front row—C. McClare, E. Armer, S. Roan, M. Guarino, N. Howland, E. Curley, R. Corthell, V. Dondero, A. Wilcox,

D. Walsh. Back row—N. Goldman, L. Corthell, L. Lundgren, A. duCille, M. Mallon, K. Morey, M. Horsley, R. Hardman.

The old warning, "Never volunteer for anything" seems to be completely ignored by the library and cafeteria assistants who gladly give of their time to perform their duties. These are young men and women of principle for they have learned to disregard even their best friends' pleas for special attention.

CAFETERIA ASSISTANTS

Left to Right-F. Orcutt, W. Pyott, C. Kruese, R. Benoit, K. Rollins.

EDITORIAL STAFF

Although our new school newspaper may not be the Times, working on the Norseman gives the students an opportunity to familiarize himself with the world of journalism. Getting the news, writing it up, and meeting deadlines serve to develop a sense of responsibility as well as technical knowledge. He enjoys his job as much as the student body enjoys the results.

NORSEMAN

Miss Elaine VanZandt, Advisor

STAFF: Front row-C. Veilleux, J. Dunlevy, J. Hubbard, K. Clish, M. Mayer, T. Ragers, K. Whiteman, T. Yakavonis, R. Zentz, J. Persson. Middle row-P. Poole, L. Anderson, R. Leganowitz, V. Dondero, P. Eklund, A. Soccacia, J.

Brown, J. Hogue, M. Guarino, C. Perrault, B. Clark. Back row-A. Fiorini, D. Meyerowitz, T. Morey, S. Querimpel, P. Morey, D. Rugg, A. duCille, J. Nadolny, R. Alexander, J. Conlon, J. Farrell, N. Morton.

CHORUS

The critical audience sits defiantly watching. . .waiting. It sees the chorus slowly mount the risers. It sees the stumbles, the adjusting, and the eyes - hundreds of eyes - some laughing, some almost crying, but all fixed on the man with the baton. Up goes the stick-mouths open-then down. . .from this point on the audience sees nothing; it only listens and hears and admits that music is truly "the speech of angels." Mr. Schuller and company have done it again!

BAND

As outsiders, we never see the tears and tantrums that go into building a band such as ours. We only see the finished product, a harmonious conglomeration of clarinets, drums, and saxaphones, always beautifully complemented by the majorettes. But we do realize that it takes a great deal of practice to give a performance. This realization intensifies our appreciation for hard-working band members, majorettes, and their patient director, Mr. John Schuller.

SPORTS

. . . and then, victoriously Vikings.

CHEERLEADERS

Top to bottom - E. Cruz, J. Robichaud, J. Duarte (sub.), C. Duarte, A. Demers, C. Perrault, J. Brown, K. Farrell, Co-captain. Not able to be present - N. Sparling, Co-captain.

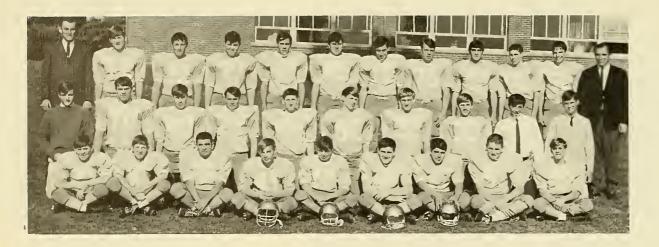

T. . .E. . .A. . .M. . .Yeoh Team!! We dedicate this cheer to our cheerleaders for they, too, are quite a team. Under the watchful eyes of Mrs. Gallo, these are a continual source of inspiration to the boys on the field as well as the spectators. Few other groups equal them in energy, and none in spirit.

L. Davidson, S. Moskus. Back row — Coach Collins, D. Kennerson, S. Queripel, R. Sweeney, D. Wood, E. Pittsley, G. Alden, T. Goode, E. Holyoke, J. Kingston, W. Coots, Coach Urban.

The football season came and went but not unnoticed. Every student was aware that ERIK was here. Attendence and morale were at the highest peak in years. The capable guidance of the coaching staff was able to transform these ordinary students into ferocious Vikings. The most satisfying and treasured victory came in the traditional Thanksgiving Day Game. Surely this was a perfect end to a wonderful season.

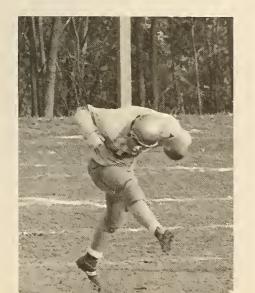

A new spirit has hit E.B.H.S. Whether this spirit was due to, or the cause of our winning football team is debatable. But hopefully this spirit is not a one time thing, and is here to stay.

FIELD HOCKEY

Front Row - D. Perkins, S. Savoy, W. Wilson N. Levongie, M. Alsheimer, D. Whitmarsh, S. J. Perrson, S. Singleton, D. Wood,

Invigorating gusts of wind, crackling, crisp, colorful autumn leaves, a stretch of field, and bright blue and gold uniforms and the field hockey game is underway. Those who play this gome maintain a high degree of spirit and enthusiasm throughout the season, whether they win or lose. Despite the lack of spectators, field hockey remains the roughest and most challenging of the girls' sports.

CROSS COUNTRY

Front row — J. Swanson, G. Kingstan, R. Brown, J. Craig, J. Bergeron, D. Lovering, S. Levangie. Back row — G. DeChristopher,

G. Woodard, M. Ring, D. Parsons, M. Johnson, J. Walsh, C. Mott, Coach Edward Meaney.

The satisfaction of winning a meet more than compensates for those miserable days of tired, stiff muscles. With a drive to win, these boys spurred themselves on to victory and once again came up with a successful season — winning six out of the nine meets they participated in. Those few final seconds prove to be as invaluable to the runners as they are to the spirit of '67.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Front row - D. Williams, C. Roon, J. Moxley-Captain, W. Hamilton, S. Queripel. Second row - W. Harden, M. Ring, D. Wood, M. Forni, G. Alden.

Back row - Mr. Joseph Morey-Coach, S. Levangie, M. Mason, D. Meyerowitz, D. Muinse, G. Stetson, P. Mola.

The season was not all wins, yet the team was undefeated; undefeated in resource. As tempers and pressure swelled in the gym among the spectators, the players kept their sure pace. Disappointment was known, but so was victory and when it came, it was well deserved.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

Front row — M. Mayer, C. May, L. Mayer, M. Lovering, J. Collins, A. Wilcox Back row — C. Jackson, J. Trochsler, K. Figgins, J. LaRosa, S. Froio, L. Santilli

The girls' games may have lacked spectators, but that was all. Through the efforts of its players, the team continued to prove that girls' games are as exciting and surprising as any of the boys'. Spirit and drive were evident in every movement. Defeat caused only an added spurt to their energies. And in the end, they were victors.

BASEBALL

On the following four pages are action pictures of the 1966 spring sports. Unfortunctely, anly boys sports pictures were available. This was not an act on our part to slight girls softball. We are very sorry to say we don't have them, but rother than leave good pictures in the drawer, lost for years, we give them to you now.
